DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/3/2005 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claims 2-5 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 8/11/2003.

Claim Interpretation

3. Claim 1 is a product-by-process claim. A product by process claim is limited only by the structure implied by the claims, not to the specific manipulations performed to obtain the product. The claimed product comprises a porous product containing silicon carbide as indicated by the preamble and the claim language "performing reaction-bonding of the porous structural body so as to form silicon carbide having superior molten silicon wettability and to simultaneously form open pores caused by the reaction-bonding during which the reaction volume decreases" and silicon as indicated by the claims language "to form a composite of silicon carbide and silicon having the porous structural body".

The remaining process limitations are not considered to imbue the claim with any further structure because it merely recites the preparation and infiltration of carbon-containing and silicon-containing components that may be reacted to form the silicon carbide-silicon composite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1762

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Luthra et al. (U.S. Patent 5,962,103, hereafter '103).

'103 teaches a porous composite of silicon carbide and silicon (col. 4, line 63-col. 5, line 4).

6. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hanzawa (U.S. Patent 5,851,941, hereafter '941).

'941 teaches a porous composite of silicon carbide and silicon (col. 2, lines 28-31).

Double Patenting

7. Applicant is advised that should claim 1 be found allowable, claim 6 will be objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate thereof. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 5/3/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Tani teaches that molten silicon infiltration cannot be performed. The argument is unconvincing because Tani explicitly teaches that molten silicon infiltration is performed (although not preferred). "Disclosed examples and preferred embodiments do not constitute a teaching away from a broader disclosure or nonpreferred embodiments. In re Susi, 440 F.2d 442, 169 USPQ 423 (CCPA 1971). "A known or obvious composition does not become patentable simply because it has been described as somewhat inferior to some other product for the same use." In re Gurley, 27 F.3d 551, 554, 31 USPQ2d 1130, 1132 (Fed. Cir. 1994)" See MPEP 2121.

Art Unit: 1762

However, the rejection over Tani is withdrawn in view of the amendment because Tani does not explicitly teach that the silicon-impregnated composite is porous. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of the above-cited references.
